RE: Response regarding questions and concerns of the audited financial statements for the year ended June 30, 2012 of Green Springs High School

Dear Mr. Miranda :

We have responded below to your six questions and concerns noted in your correspondence dated October 16, 2012.

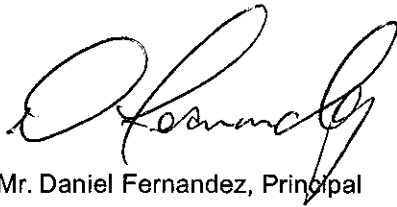

1. We have attached a Budgeted Statement of Revenues, Expenditures and Changes in Fund Balances of Governmental Funds for the year ending June 30, 2013, a Budgeted Statement of Activities for the year ending June 30, 2013, and a Budgeted Statement of Net Assets as of June 30, 2013. In addition, we have attached a Budgeted Schedule of Excess Cash Flows for the year ending June 30, 2013. These financial statements and Excess Cash Flows schedule were prepared based on information included in the School's FY 2013 Budget. The budgeted financial statements and Excess Cash Flows schedule reflect continuing improvement in the financial operations and stability of the School from FY 2012 to FY 2013. The School's actual October 2012 FTE was 365. The 2013 budget was prepared using October 2012 FTE of 325 and February 2013 FTE of 350.
2. For purposes of the financial statements noted above in Item 1, we made a conservative assumption that the capital outlay funds earned in FY 2012 would be received in FY 2013 and the capital outlay funds earned in FY 2013 would be received in FY 2014.
3. The amount Due to Management Company at June 30, 2012 was comprised of the following:

a. a. Management fees and Educational fees	$220,000
b. b. School Operating Costs	$541,000
	$761,000
4. The debt balance of $391,170 as of June 30, 2012 owed to Building Hope is shown in the Statement of Net Assets within the caption Long-term liabilities: Portion due or payable within one year of $64,186 and Portion due or payable after one year of $326,984.
5. We have attached a copy of the executed note from Building Hope and a schedule of the uses/expenditures of the proceeds from the loan.

6. In addition to the management and education contracts, Accelerated Learning Solutions, Inc., the management company, guarantees the Building Hope Loan noted on #4 above (attached), and the building lease for the school. There are no other related party transactions.

We appreciate our continuing partnership of educating students and preparing them for their future after graduating from High School.

Sincerely,

RE: QUESTIONS AND CONCERNS REGARDING THE AUDITED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS FOR THE YEAR ENDED JUNE 30, 2012

Dear Bishop Douglas, Mr. Min, and Mr. Fernandez:

As part of the sponsoring School Board's oversight responsibilities pursuant to section 1002.33, Florida Statutes, we have reviewed the June 30, 2012 audited financial statements for Green Springs High School and have the following questions and concerns:

- The School had a deficit unassigned fund balance of $(27,809) and a deficit net asset position of $(91,340) as of June 30, 2012. Please provide a current Budgeted Statement of Revenues, Expenditures and Changes in Fund Balance, a current Budgeted Statement of Activities and a current Budgeted Statement of Net Assets for fiscal year 2012-13, and respond to our concern as to the School's financial stability for future operation as a charter school.
- The amount of $138,482 is reflected as FY 2011-12 capital outlay monies due from the State and/or District. However, the School may not be entitled to these funds based on academic performance. If that amount is not collectable, the School's tenuous financial position is exacerbated.
- The financial statements reflect a "due to management company" of $760,820. Please provide the detail of that amount's composition.
- Where is the $391,170 debt due to Building Hope (note 4) reflected in the financial statements?
- Please provide a copy of the executed note from Building Hope and a detail of the uses/expenditures of the proceeds from the loan.
- Other than the management and education contracts described in note 6, are there any direct or indirect related party transactions between Accelerated Learning Solutions, Inc., or affiliated parties, and the School?

All acts of said attorney or designee are hereby ratified and approved by Grantor. This power of attorney is coupled with an interest and is irrevocable so long as any of the obligations secured hereby remain unpaid or unperformed.

Blocked Deposit Account Control Agreement

This Blocked Deposit Account Control Agreement (the "Agreement") is entered into as of this day of September, 2011 among Florida High School for Accelerated Learning, Miami Campus, Inc. (the "Customer"), Building Hope... A Charter School Facilities Fund (the "Secured Party") and Citibank, N.A. (the "Bank").

RECITALS

- A. The Customer maintains deposit account number 9119795667 in the name of the Customer at the Bank (whether individually or collectively, the "Account").
- B. The Customer and the Secured Party have notified the Bank that, in connection with a certain loan, financial or other transaction, the Customer has granted the Secured Party (for itself and/or as agent for other parties) a security interest in the Account.
- C. The Secured Party and the Customer desire to enter into this Agreement to perfect the Secured Party's security interest in the Account and to describe the respective rights and duties of the parties hereto with respect to the Account.

Therefore, the parties agree as follows:

1. Definitions. In this Agreement, the following terms have the following meanings or interpretations:
 - (a) "Account-related Agreements" means the Citibusiness Client Manual, funds transfer agreement, any lockbox operating agreement, and any cash management or other agreements entered into between the Bank and the Customer with respect to the Account, each as may be amended, modified or supplemented from time to time.
 - (b) "Business Day" means any day of the week that is not a Saturday, Sunday, bank holiday or other day that the Commercial Banking Servicing Department of the Bank is closed.
 - (c) "Disposition Notice" means written instructions received by the Bank from the Secured Party directing the disposition of funds in the Account, in the form of Exhibit A hereto or as set forth on Schedule 1 hereto.
 - (d) "Release Notice" means a written notice from the Secured Party to the Bank in the form of Exhibit B, notifying the Bank that the Secured Party is terminating the Agreement and releasing its security interest in the Account.
 - (e) "UCC" means the Uniform Commercial Code of the jurisdiction whose law governs this Agreement.
2. The parties hereto agree that, in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, the Bank shall comply with the instructions originated by the Secured Party directing the disposition of the funds in the Account without further consent by the Customer. The parties hereto further agree that from the date hereof,
 - (a) the Bank will not comply with any instructions from the Customer with respect to the Account with respect to any withdrawal, transfer or other release of funds in the Account;
 - (b) to the extent that the Bank and the Customer are party to a lockbox operating agreement, pursuant to which a lockbox is associated with the Account (the "Lockbox"), (i) the Bank will not comply with any instructions from the Customer with respect to any checks or other items received in the Lockbox and (ii) the Bank will pick up and process the checks and other items and correspondence received in the Lockbox, including depositing the checks and other items of payment, only to the Account, all in accordance with the lockbox operating agreement;
 - (c) the Bank will block the Account in a manner that will prevent the Customer from having any rights of withdrawal from the Account, and
 - (d) the Secured Party (but not the Customer) may direct the disposition of the funds in the Account and Lockbox (if applicable) by delivering a Disposition Notice to the Bank.

The Customer acknowledges and agrees that the Bank shall have no obligation to inquire or investigate whether the Customer is in default in the payment or performance of its obligations to the Secured Party or to any other party. The Customer further acknowledges and agrees that the Bank will not be liable to the Customer for complying with any direction of the Secured Party even if the Customer notifies the Bank that a default had not occurred and/or that the Secured Party was not justified in issuing a Disposition Notice.

3. To the extent that the Secured Party desires to provide disposition instructions to the Bank simultaneously with the execution of this Agreement, such instructions are set forth on Schedule 1 hereto (the "Standing Wire Instructions"). The Standing Wire Instructions (if set forth on Schedule 1) constitute a Disposition Notice originated by the Secured Party, and the Bank agrees to process such Disposition Notice in accordance with the terms of the Account-related Agreements within a reasonable time not to exceed the later of (a) two (2) Business Days after the Bank's receipt of a fully executed copy of this Agreement and (b) the "Beginning Date" specified in the Standing Wire Instructions. If the Bank receives a fully executed copy of this Agreement after noon, Central Standard Time, on any day, then this Agreement will be deemed to have been received on the following Business Day. Any instructions by the Secured Party to amend or terminate the Standing Wire Instructions will constitute a new Disposition Notice and must be in writing, in the form of Exhibit A, and delivered in accordance with the notice requirements set forth in this Agreement for Disposition Notices.

4. Notices.

(a) In order for any Disposition Notice (other than the Standing Wire Instructions, if any, set forth on Schedule 1), Release Notice or any other notice sent to the Bank to be binding upon the Bank, such notice must be delivered to the Commercial Banking Servicing Department of the Bank by facsimile transmission to:

Facsimile Number: (210) 357-9515 or (210) 357-9527

Attention: Citibank, N.A. CBG Servicing Re: Control Agreement

with a written copy sent to the address set forth for the Bank on the signature pages hereto. Such copy must be delivered by hand, mailed by United States registered or certified first class mail, postage prepaid and return receipt requested, sent by overnight courier or delivered via facsimile or email transmission, to the extent that a facsimile number or email address has been provided for the purpose of receiving such notices.

(b) Notices to all other parties, must be in writing and delivered by hand, mailed by United States registered or certified first class mail, postage prepaid and return receipt requested, sent by overnight courier or delivered via facsimile transmission or email, to the extent that a facsimile number or email address has been provided for the purpose of receiving such notices.

(c) Any notice or communication shall be deemed to have been duly given or made and to have become effective at the time of the receipt thereof by the recipient. Any party may change its mailing or email address or facsimile number for notices by notifying the other parties hereto in accordance with the notice provisions set forth in this Section.

5. The Bank will not be obligated to follow, nor shall it be liable to the Secured Party or the Customer for failing to follow a Disposition Notice

(a) that is not fully completed or that does not have attached to it a fully executed copy of this Agreement,

(b) that requires the disposition of funds from the Account that are not immediately available at the time such funds are to be transferred;

(c) that requires the disposition of funds from the Account if the Bank has not received evidence reasonably required by the Bank (in the form of an Incumbency certificate signed by a secretary of the Secured Party in the form of Exhibit C attached hereto or other authorizing form satisfactory to the Bank) as to the authority of the person giving the Disposition Notice to act on behalf of the Secured Party;

(d) that requires funds be sent to more than one recipient;

(e) that requires the Bank to make more than one disposition of funds unless the disposition of funds will be pursuant to an automated standing wire in accordance with the Bank's wire procedures;

(f) that requires the disposition of funds in the Account by a method not available to the Customer under the Account-related Agreements; or

(g) that requires the disposition of funds to a location outside of the United States.

In addition, the Bank will not be liable to the Secured Party or the Customer for any failure to follow or any delay in following any Disposition Notice (including any funds transfer requests) or any provision of this Agreement due to a computer malfunction, interruption of communication facilities, labor difficulties, act of God, war, terrorist attack, or other cause beyond the Bank's reasonable control.

6. If at any time, (a) the Customer becomes subject to a voluntary or involuntary proceeding under the United States Bankruptcy Code, (b) the Bank is otherwise served with a court order which the Bank in good faith believes affects the Account, or (c) the Bank determines that acting upon the instructions of either the Customer or the Secured Party would result in the violation of any applicable law, rule or regulation, the Bank may cease acting upon the instructions of both the Customer and the Secured Party and suspend disbursements from the Account otherwise required by the terms hereof or any Disposition Notice, until such time as the Bank receives assurances reasonably satisfactory to the Bank that funds in the Account may continue to be disbursed.

7. The Bank represents and warrants to the Secured Party that the Bank (a) is an organization engaged in the business of banking and (b) maintains the Account as a deposit account in the ordinary course of the Bank's business. The Bank has not entered into any currently effective control agreement with respect to the Account for the benefit of any person other than the Secured Party and the Bank will not enter into a control agreement with respect to the Account for the benefit of any person other than the Secured Party during the term of this Agreement. The Bank agrees that it will not change the name or account number of the Account without the prior written consent of the Secured Party.

8. Subordination.
- (a) Except for amounts referred to in clause (b) of this Section, the Bank (i) subordinates any security interest, lien or other encumbrance it may have against the Account to the Secured Party's security interest and (ii) will not exercise any right of recoupment, setoff or debit against the Account. This subordination will not apply to any security interest that the Bank has in an item under the UCC Article 4 as a collecting bank.
 - (b) Notwithstanding subparagraph (a) of this Section, and regardless of any agreement of the Customer to compensate the Bank by means of balances in the Account, the Bank may charge the Account, to the extent permitted by any of the Account-related Agreements or applicable law, for (i) the face amount of a check, draft, money order, instrument, wire transfer of funds, automated clearing house entry, other electronic transfer of funds or other item (A) deposited in or credited to the Account and returned unpaid or otherwise uncollected or subject to an adjustment entry, whether for insufficient funds or for any other reason and without regard to the timeliness of the return or adjustment or the occurrence or timeliness of any other person's notice of nonpayment or adjustment, or (B) subject to a notice against the Bank for breach of transfer, presentment, encoding, retention or other warranty under Federal Reserve regulations or Operating Circulars, clearing house rules, the UCC or other applicable law, (ii) any adjustments or corrections of any posting or encoding errors, and (iii) fees and expenses chargeable by the Bank in respect of the Account or any related services, including those services specified in the Account-related Agreements.
9. This Agreement shall be absolute and continuing and shall remain in effect until terminated as hereinafter provided.
10. This Agreement shall apply only to the Account and shall not apply to any other accounts of the Customer now existing or hereafter created at the Bank except pursuant to a written amendment to this Agreement executed by the parties hereto.
11. Except with respect to the obligations and duties expressly provided in this Agreement, this Agreement shall not impose or create any obligations or duties upon the Bank that are greater than or in addition to the usual and customary obligations and duties, if any, of the Bank with respect to the Account or the Customer. The Bank shall have no obligation or duty whatsoever to interpret the terms of any agreements between the Customer and the Secured Party or to determine whether any default exists thereunder.
12. The Customer hereby irrevocably authorizes and instructs the Bank to perform and comply with the terms of this Agreement. The Account-related Agreements will continue to apply to the Account and any services provided in connection with the Account (including any funds transfers); provided, however, that to the extent there is any conflict between this Agreement and any Account-related Agreement, the provisions of this Agreement will control. Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Agreement will not (a) derogate from any claim or defense that the Bank may have against the Customer under any Account-related Agreements or (b) create any third-party beneficiary rights under any of the Account-related Agreements in favor of the Secured Party.
13. Unless the Bank becomes obligated to close the Account under any statute, rule or regulation, court order or any legal process binding upon the Bank, neither the Customer nor the Bank will close the Account prior to termination of this Agreement. This Agreement may not be terminated by the Customer, except by a notice to the Bank given jointly with the Secured Party. This Agreement may be terminated (a) by the Secured Party at any time by providing a Release Notice to the Customer and the Bank and (b) by the Bank (i) immediately upon notice to the Customer and the Secured Party if the Bank becomes obligated to terminate this Agreement or to close the Account under any statute, rule or regulation, court order or any legal process binding upon the Bank, (ii) otherwise upon thirty (30) days' notice to the Customer and the Secured Party. If the Bank terminates this Agreement pursuant to clause (i) of this Section, the Bank will, unless a previously delivered and continuing effective Disposition Notice directs otherwise, remit any available funds in the Account on the date of termination, by check mailed to the address of the Secured Party for receiving communications under this Agreement. If the Bank terminates this Agreement pursuant to clause (ii) of this Section, the Bank will, unless a previously delivered and continuing effective Disposition Notice directs otherwise, remit any available funds in the Account on the effective date of termination (A) at the direction of the Secured Party if the direction is received by the Bank prior to the effective date of termination of this Agreement or (B) if no such direction is received by the Bank prior to such date by check mailed to the address of the Secured Party for receiving communications under this Agreement. Any obligation of the Bank to remit any funds to or at the direction of the Secured Party under this subsection is subject to Sections 5 and 6 hereof. The termination of this Agreement will not affect any rights created or obligations incurred under this Agreement before the termination.
14. To the extent that a Lockbox is associated with the Account, upon the termination of this Agreement by the Bank, the Bank will follow the procedures set forth in this Section for a period of thirty (30) days following the termination of this Agreement or for such shorter period of time as the Secured Party specifies in instructions to the Bank (the "Post-Termination Period"). During the Post-Termination Period, the Bank will forward to the Secured Party all checks and other items or correspondence received in the Lockbox, including checks and other items received in the Lockbox as of the termination of this Agreement by the Bank and not at the time already deposited to the Account. The Customer, and to the extent not paid by the Customer, the Secured Party, will pay to the Bank any fees customarily charged by the Bank, and will reimburse the Bank for any out of pocket costs or expenses incurred by the Bank, in maintaining the Lockbox and forwarding the checks and other items and correspondence during the Post-Termination Period. The Bank reserves the right to condition its maintenance of the Lockbox and forwarding of the checks and other items and correspondence on the receipt of such payments and reimbursements to the Bank in advance. Any checks or other items or correspondence forwarded to the Secured Party by the Bank pursuant to this Section will be forwarded in the form received, without the Bank supplying any endorsements for the checks or other items.

15. The Customer shall indemnify and hold harmless the Bank from and against any and all claims, actions and suits (whether groundless or otherwise), losses, damages, costs, expenses (including reasonable attorney's fees and disbursements) and liabilities of every nature and character arising out of or related to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby or any actions taken or omitted to be taken by the Bank hereunder, except to the extent directly caused by the Bank's gross negligence or willful misconduct. The Secured Party shall indemnify and hold harmless the Bank against all claims, actions, losses, damages, costs and expenses (including reasonable attorney's fees and disbursements) incurred, sustained or payable by the Bank arising from the Bank following a Disposition Notice or from the Bank's remittance of funds pursuant to Section 2 or 3 or arising from the services provided by Bank under Section 14 (if applicable), except to the extent directly caused by the Bank's gross negligence or willful misconduct. The foregoing indemnity provisions shall survive any termination of this Agreement.
16. The Bank may act upon any instrument or other writing believed by it in good faith to be genuine and to have been signed or presented by a person purporting to be the Secured Party or the Customer (or any agent thereof), as the case may be. The Customer and the Secured Party hereby agree that the procedures set forth in this Agreement, together with the execution of this Agreement, are commercially reasonable for each of them and that no other security procedures, as such term is defined in Article 4A of the UCC, are necessary or desired, including, without limitation, those involving any call back to the Secured Party or other methods of verification of authority with respect to Disposition Notices or any other writings. The Bank shall not be liable in connection with the performance or non-performance of its duties hereunder, except for its own gross negligence or willful misconduct. The Bank's duties shall be determined only with reference to this Agreement and applicable laws, and the Bank shall not be charged with knowledge of, or any duties or responsibilities in connection with, any other document or agreement. The Bank shall have no liability to any party for any incidental, punitive or consequential damages resulting from any breach by the Bank of its obligations hereunder.
17. If the Secured Party so requests the Bank will provide to the Secured Party, a copy of each periodic account statement relating to the Account ordinarily furnished by the Bank to the Customer. The Bank's liability for failing to provide the account statement will not exceed the Bank's cost of providing the statement. The Customer authorizes the Bank to provide to the Secured Party such statements and any other information concerning the Account that the Bank may agree to provide to the Secured Party at the Secured Party's request.
18. This Agreement may not be amended or modified without the prior written consent of the Bank, the Customer and the Secured Party (except that amendments to the Standing Wire Instructions may only be made by the Secured Party in accordance with this Agreement and any such amendments will be deemed to be a Disposition Notice and not an amendment to this Agreement).
19. No delay or omission on the part of the Secured Party, the Customer or the Bank in exercising any right hereunder shall operate as a waiver of such right or of any other right under this Agreement. No waiver of any right under this Agreement shall be effective unless in writing and signed by the party waiving such right, and no waiver on one occasion shall be construed as a bar to or waiver of any such right on any other occasion.
20. This Agreement and any waiver or amendment hereto may be executed in counterparts and by the parties hereto in separate counterparts, each of which when so executed and delivered shall be an original, but all of which shall together constitute one and the same instrument. This Agreement may be executed and delivered by pdf format via email transmission or by facsimile transmission, all with the same force and effect as if the same were a fully-executed and delivered original manual counterpart.

21. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York (without giving effect to the conflicts of law principles thereof) and shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns. The Bank's jurisdiction for purposes of Part 3 of Article 9 of the UCC is New York.
22. This Agreement, together with any Schedules and Exhibits attached hereto, constitutes the entire agreement, and supersedes any prior agreements, of the parties concerning its subject matter. In the event a provision of this Agreement is unenforceable, this Agreement shall be construed to the extent possible as if the unenforceable provision were omitted.
23. EACH OF THE SECURED PARTY, CUSTOMER AND THE BANK HEREBY KNOWINGLY AND INTENTIONALLY WAIVES THE RIGHT TO A TRIAL BY JURY WITH RESPECT TO ANY LITIGATION ARISING OUT OF OR DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT.

Re: Building Hope Term Loans to: (1) Florida High School of Accelerated Learning - Greater Miami Campus, Inc. ($332,600.00); (2) Florida High School of Accelerated Learning - Miami-Dade Campus, Inc. ($507,000.00); and (3) Florida High School of Accelerated Learning - Miami Campus, Inc. ($461,170.00) (collectively, the "Borrower"), guaranteed by Accelerated Learning Solutions, Inc. (the "Guarantor") and secured by a lien upon certain tangible and intangible personal property owned by the Borrower.

Ladies and Gentlemen:

This opinion is furnished to you ("Lender") by us as counsel for the Guarantor and is solely for your benefit and is rendered solely in connection with the above-referenced loan transactions. This Opinion Letter is furnished as part of the three separate loan transactions described in this letter's reference section above (collectively, the "Loan").

I.
BACKGROUND

1.1. Documents Reviewed. As Guarantor's counsel we have reviewed the Guaranty and Subordination Agreement (the "Guaranty") executed by Guarantor and delivered to Lender. In addition to reviewing the Guaranty, we have also examined and relied upon the Charter and By-Laws of the Guarantor and certain certificates, affidavits, resolutions provided to us by the Guarantor and a certificate of existence for the Guarantor.

1.2. Opining Jurisdiction. Inasmuch as we are admitted to practice law only in the State of Tennessee, the law covered by the opinions expressed in this Opinion Letter (the "Law") is limited to the generally applicable Law of the State of Tennessee in force and effect as of the date hereof. We disclaim and express no opinion concerning the laws of any other jurisdiction, or the effect thereof. We further express no opinion concerning the statutes and ordinances, the administrative decisions, and the rules and regulations of counties, towns, municipalities and special political subdivisions (whether created or enabled through legislative action at the Federal, state or regional level) and judicial decisions to the extent that they deal with any of the foregoing.

1.3. Scope of Review. In connection with the opinions hereinafter set forth, we have limited the scope of our review to the Guaranty. The opinions expressed herein do not consider or extend to any documents other than the Guaranty, whether or not referred to in the Guaranty and whether or not delivered to us. In addition, we have given consideration to such matters of law and fact, as we have deemed appropriate, in our professional judgment, to render such opinions. We have not examined the records of any court, agency, administrative tribunal, regulatory body or other similar entity in connection with this Opinion Letter.

1.4. Reliance. In connection with the opinions regarding the valid existence contained in Opinion 2.1 below, we have relied solely upon the Certificate of Existence listed on Schedule 1 hereto. The opinion regarding valid existence is limited to the meaning ascribed to such certificates by the applicable state agency.

II. OPINIONS

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, and to the qualifications and limitations set forth below, we are of the opinion that:

2.1. The Guarantor is a Tennessee corporation, duly organized and validly existing under the laws of the State of Tennessee.

2.2. The Guarantor has all requisite power and authority to execute and deliver the Guaranty and to perform the Guarantor's obligations thereunder.

2.3. Based on the foregoing and subject to the qualifications and limitations stated in this letter, we are of the opinion that the Guaranty has been properly executed and delivered by the Guarantor and that such execution is duly authorized and performed.

III. LIMITATIONS

3.1. Legal Issues. This Opinion Letter deals only with the specific legal issues that are addressed by it. No opinion may be inferred or implied beyond the matters expressly contained herein. Further, this Opinion Letter is rendered as of the date hereof, and we undertake no, and hereby disclaim any, obligation to advise you of any changes in Law or any new developments subsequent to the date hereof which might affect any matters or Opinions set forth herein.

September 20, 2011

3.2. No Guarantee. Our advice on each legal issue addressed in this Opinion Letter represents our opinion as to how that issue would be resolved were it to be considered by the highest court of the jurisdiction upon whose law our opinion on that issue is based. The manner in which any particular issue would be treated in any actual court case would depend in part on facts and circumstances particular to the case, and this Opinion Letter is not intended to guarantee the outcome of any legal dispute which may arise in the future.

3.3. Date. This Opinion Letter is rendered as of the effective date set forth above, and we express no opinion as to circumstances or events which may occur subsequent to such date.

3.4. Use of Opinions. The Opinions expressed in this Opinion Letter are solely for the use and benefit of the addressees hereof and the use and benefit of their assignees and participants permitted by the Guaranty in connection with the Loan. Without our prior written consent, this Opinion Letter may not be used or relied upon by the addressees hereof or their permitted assignees and participants for any other purpose whatsoever, except for the use of this Opinion Letter (i) in connection with review of the Guaranty by a regulatory agency having supervisory authority over the addressees hereof for the purpose of confirming the existence of this Opinion Letter, (ii) in connection with the assertion of a defense as to which this Opinion Letter is relevant and necessary, or (iii) in response to a court order. This Opinion Letter may not be delivered or quoted to any other person or entity (other than the accountants, attorneys and other professional advisors of addressees and their permitted assigns and participants), or relied upon for any other purpose, or in any other context, or by any other person or entity, without our prior express written consent.

Sincerely,

Ladies and Gentlemen:

This opinion is furnished to you by us as special counsel for the Borrower and the Guarantor and is solely for your benefit ("Lender") and is rendered solely in connection with the above-referenced loan transactions. This opinion may be relied upon only in connection with these transactions and may not be relied upon by any other party without our prior written consent. In addition, this opinion is rendered as of the date of this letter and this firm assumes no obligation to update or supplement this opinion. We are licensed to practice law in the State of Florida and, therefore, our opinion is limited solely to the laws of the State of Florida.

This opinion is furnished as part of the three separate loan transactions described in this letter's reference section above (collectively, the "Loan").

In addition, the scope of this opinion and the interpretation of any terms contained in this letter and the extent of the opinions set forth herein are governed by the Report On Standards for Opinions of Florida Counsel of the Special Committee on Opinion Standards of the Florida Bar Business Law Section adopted September, 1998.

As Borrower's or Guarantor's special counsel, we have reviewed the following documents:

- (a) Promissory Notes
- (b) Guaranty and Subordination Agreement
- (c) Security Agreement
- (d) UCC-1 Financing Statement to be recorded in Miami-Dade County and filed with the State of Florida.

The above listed documents are hereafter collectively referred to as the "Loan Documents". In addition to reviewing the Loan Documents, we have also examined and relied upon the Articles of Incorporation and By-Laws of the Borrower (the "Organizational Documents") and certain certificates, affidavits, and resolutions provided to us by the Borrower, certificates of good standing for the Borrower and Uniform Commercial Code searches we have obtained from the Florida Secretary of State and from local county Public Records ("Supporting Documents"). Except as to the matters related to the validity and enforcement of the Guarantor's guaranty under Florida law, regarding any aspects of this opinion related to the Guarantor, a Tennessee corporation governed by the laws of that state, we have relied upon the supplementary legal opinion of Harwell Howard Hyne Gabbert & Manner, P.C., which is attached to and made a part of this opinion and upon any certificates, affidavits and resolutions provided to us by the Guarantor.

In rendering the following opinions, we have relied, as to factual matters that affect our opinions, solely on our examination of the Loan Documents, Organizational Documents and the Supporting Documents and have made no independent verification of the facts contained in those documents, including the representations and warranties of the Borrower or Guarantor contained therein. Our firm has represented the Borrower and Guarantor solely in this transaction and we have not represented the Borrower or Guarantor in any other legal matters and, therefore, there may be matters of a legal nature affecting the Borrower or Guarantor of which we are not aware unless disclosed to us by the Borrower or Guarantor. Therefore, any of the following opinions, which are limited to our knowledge, are provided based solely upon any additional matters of which the Borrower or Guarantor have advised us, or upon the Organizational Documents and Supporting Documents. We have also assumed the genuineness of all signatures on the originals of the copies of the executed Loan Documents furnished to us, as well as the conformity of such copies to the originals.

Based upon the foregoing, we are of the opinion that:

JOHNSON, ANSELMO, MURDOCH, BURKE, PIPER & HOCHMAN, P.A.

September 20, 2011

1. The Borrower is a Florida not-for-profit corporation, duly organized and existing in good standing under the laws of the State of Florida.

2. The Guarantor is a Tennessee corporation, duly organized and existing in good standing under the laws of the State of Tennessee.

3. The Borrower and Guarantor have all requisite power and authority to execute and deliver the Loan Documents to which the Borrower or Guarantor are a party and to perform the Borrower's or Guarantor's obligations thereunder.

4. Based on the foregoing and subject to the qualifications and limitations stated in this letter, we are of the opinion that the Loan Documents have been properly executed and delivered by the Borrower and Guarantor and that such execution is duly authorized and performed.

5. Subject to the limitations contained in the next paragraph, the Loan Documents are valid and binding obligations of the Borrower and Guarantor, enforceable against them under the laws of the State of Florida.

Our opinion concerning the validity, binding effect and enforceability of the Loan Documents, means that (a) the Loan Documents constitute effective agreements of the Borrower and Guarantor under applicable law; (b) the Loan Documents are not invalid in their entirety because of any specific statutory prohibition or public policy and are not subject in their entirety to a defense; and (c) subject to the last sentence of this paragraph, some remedy is available if the Borrower is in material default under the Loan Documents and the ultimate realization of the practical benefits and/or security provided by the Loan Documents will not be precluded by any limitations set forth in this opinion. This opinion does not mean that (a) any particular remedy is available upon default or (b) every provision of the Loan Documents will be upheld or enforced in any or each circumstance by a court. Furthermore, the validity, binding effect and enforceability of the Loan Documents may be limited or otherwise affected by (a) bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium, fraudulent conveyance or other similar statutes, rules, regulations or other laws affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights and remedies generally and (b) the unavailability of, or limitation on the availability a particular right or remedy (whether in a proceeding in equity or at law) because of an equitable principal or a requirement as to commercial reasonableness, conscionability or good faith.

6. Upon timely recording and filing of the UCC-1 Financing Statements, the Lender will obtain a perfected first lien security interest in the Property of the Borrower described in the Security Agreement and UCC-1 Financing Statements; provided, however, that a security interest in any leasehold interest of the Borrower is limited by the terms of the leases under which the Borrower maintains its occupancy of the particular premises described in the lease and the right to any funds from the Florida Department of Education or the Federal Charter School Implementation Grant is necessarily limited by the terms of the State funding or Federal grant. Furthermore, the wiring of the Federal grant to the Lender controlled collateral account and the control of such funds will depend upon the instructions of the Borrower to the funding entity and the terms of the collateral control agreement or similar instrument.

7. To our knowledge, neither the Borrower nor the Guarantor is a party to any pending litigation which, if adversely determined, would impair the ability of the Borrower or Guarantor to meet their respective obligations under the Loan Documents to the Lender. To our knowledge, there are no litigation matters or regulatory proceedings, pending or threatened against the Borrower or the Guarantor which, if adversely determined, would impair the ability of the Borrower or Guarantor to meet its obligations under the Loan Documents to the Lender.

8. To our knowledge, the execution and delivery of the Loan Documents will not conflict with or result in a violation of any agreement, contract, instrument, order, writ, judgment or decree to which the Borrower or Guarantor is a party or to which the Borrower or Guarantor is subject.

Very truly yours,

Robert E. Murdoch
